CONTESTING DELEGATIONS

WILL TAKE TIME OF CONVENTION TODAY

Permanent Organization not Perfected Before Friday—Yates Men Jubilant—Fairbanks for Vice President.

Springfield, May 11.—The Republican state convention, which convenes at noon to morrow, will not be permanently organized before rFiday morning. There will be a fight to morrow over seating in the temporary organization of delegates recommended by the state central committee. State Senator Berry has been selected to make a fight on behalf of Deneen, Sherman and Hamlin. The committee on credentials probably will occupy all to morrow in hearing contests.

Yates men are jubilant to night It is announced not less than five hundred Yates delegates would "stand pat." Yates partisans expect Deneen and Hamlin to throw their support to Yates if there appears a probability of Lowden's nomination. On the contrary Deneen's managers said to night he expected Deneen to gain on every ballot and that he will be nominated.

A number of congressmen held an informal meeting to day and decided to ask the convention to endorse Fairbanks of Indiana for vice president. This action was taken with approval of Speaker Cannon, who feared the state convention might endorse himself.

The state central committee to day decided upon Speaker Cannon for temporary chairman and L. T. Hoy, of Woodstock, temporary secretary.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN

Met in Springfield Wednesday—Nominated Mrs. Springer for Trustee.

Springfield, May 11.—The Republican women opponents of Mrs. Elmira Springer, of Chicago, as trustee of the University of Illinois worked a neat coup on her this morning by refusing to recognize the women's Republican convention. They and their friends remained away, leaving Mrs. Springer and her delegation of Chicago ladies in complete charge.

In preceding years the Republican ladies of the state have held conventions prior to the big convention. They have selected a woman candidate for trustee and have recommended her to the men's convention. It has been customary for the men to nominate the woman endorsed by the women's convention.

In these preceding years, however, the women's convention has been a delegate affair and the women candidates for its endorsement have had equal chance to win on their merits. This year's convention, however, did not appeal to several of the women whose names have been submitted for places on the state ticket.

It has been charged that Mrs. Springer's friends have been doing a little practical politics and that admission to the convention to day was denied to women who could not pass muster before the executive committee composed entirely of Springer women. Accompanying Mrs. Springer on her trip to this city are a large number of her friends and the fear that they would outnumber the delegation of any other candidate, coupled with the requirement of admission framed by the executive committee, caused the other ladies in the contest to remain out of the convention.

Mrs. Busey, who shares with Mrs. Springer the most prominent position as candidate for this place, did not attend the convention, and none of her friends were there.

It was called to order in the hall of representatives at 10:30. All but four districts in the state were represented.

Mrs. Alice Abbott, at present one of the trustees of the university, was made temporary chairman, and Miss Mable Bowen, of Chicago, was made secretary. Both ladies have been prominent in the Springer campaign. Mrs. Carrie Alexander, of Belleville, was chosen permanent chairman.

After the naming of committees recess was taken until this afternoon. Ringing resolutions endorsing Mrs. Springer and presenting her claims to this honor in the strongest language will be presented this afternoon.

The friends of the other women have been in the meanwhile buttonholing the delegates at the Leland hotel. Assisted by well organized forces of outfielders and skirmishers these women have been receiving the delegates as fast as they are shoved in.

The fight will now be transferred to the resolutions committee of the men's convention. In the past the resolutions committee has brought in a resolution recommending to the convention the nominee of the women's convention.

The Springer women will contend that this practice should be followed this time and they are prepared to make a fight for it. The opposition will set up the fact that the women's convention this year was a mass affair, that the restrictions and requirements of admission were such as to make it impossible for other candidates to have an equal opportunity for endorsement and that the custom from any point of view is wrong and unRepublican. They insist that the University of Illinois is such an immense and valuable business asset of the state that only the best and most experienced men and women should be placed on the board. The choice of these trustees, both men and women, should be entrusted to the Republican convention. With these arguments an effort will be made to prevent the introduction of any resolution recognizing the women's convention. If this can be done the convention will be free to choose the woman best fitted for the position. This is all the candiates opposed to Mrs. Springer ask.

Jacksonville was represented in this convention by Mrs. G. H. Huntoon, Mrs. H. F. Carriel, Mrs. Frank Orear, Miss Kate Hagerty, Mrs. S. B. Gray, Mrs. H. S. Lovejoy and Mrs. Craig. They report that it was a very enthusiastic convention, the best ever held by the women Mrs. Springer was nominated by acclamation and there was no opposition whatever.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 11.—A vote was taken to night by different harbors along the great lakes on a proposition submitted to the masters and pilots for this year terms of employment. HAVE A STORMY SESSION AT OMAHA

President Denounced for Method of Conducting Business—Differences Will Be Fought Out in the Courts.

Omaha, May 11.—The annual meeting of the supreme council of the Bankers' Union of the World developed into a stormy session. After the reading of Dr. Spinney's report as president, Supreme Banker Swartz denounced Spinney and his method of conducting the business of the order. His denunciation brought a number of the delegates to their feet and much excitement followed. Spinney, who presided, called upon the police to eject Swartz, but the latter sat down and avoided trouble. At this juncture, and just as Spinney called for nominations for president, Sheriff Power appeared and served an injunction on Spinney and a numebr of his associates, restraining them from taking further action in the election of officers and from voting of proxies. Spinney at once appointed Ezra Howard chairman and himself retired to a seat with the delegates. Howard continued the session, proceeding at once with the election. It resulted:

President—E. C. Spinney, Omaha

Vice presidentA. W. Field, Lincoln.

Secretary—E. H. Drake, Lucerne, Minn.

Banker—Ezra Howard, Edgar, Neb.

Correspondent—Miss F. M. Murdock, Omaha.

Guard—Dr. A. M. Laird, Kansas City.

Sentinel—A. Saville, Glen Carbon, Ill.

Attorneys have been retained by the Swartz faction, who declare they will fight the matter out in the courts. The injunction against Spinney will come up for hearing Thursday.

Lincoln, Neb., May 11.—The re-election of Dr. Spinney as head of the Bankers' union, acording to officers of the state insurance department, is without effect until alleged irregularities complained of are rectified. THE SITUATION IN MANCHURIA

EVENTS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE FORESHADOWED

Entire Liao Tung Peninsula May Soon Be in Possession of Japanese—Russians Reported Destroying Ships at Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, May 12, 3:35 a. m. Impending events of great importance to the military situation in Manchuria are foreshadowed in the official dispatches given out late last night by the war commission. May 8 the Japanese forces cautiously moved from Feng Wang Cheng toward Hai Cheng, thirty two miles east by north of New Chwang, and it is the opinion of the general staff they should certainly reach their destination within two days. If the Japanese occupy Hai Cheng, with Port Arthur effectively cut off, New Chwang, which the Russians have already dismantled, would pass into their hands. The entire Liao Tung peninsula, in fact, save Port Arthur and perhaps Kai Ping, would be commanded by them.

The satisfaction felt at the re establishment of communication with Port Arthur is increased by the knowledge that a train load of ammunition has been safely delivered to the fortress. This was done in the presence of the enemy's army which landed at Pitsewo, which is apparently on the eve of being reinforced by another division on board thirty transports now living off Port Adams. The fact that it was considered necessary to send a train load of ammunition to Port Arthur has aroused comment and it is accepted in certain quarters as an indication that the Russians have not sufficient supplies of war material there. The Associated Press has received assurances from a member of the general staff that there are ample supplies of munitions of war at Port Arthur, but naturally Kuropatkin desired to send as much as possible to the fortress for use during the expected siege.

One fact mentioned in official dispatches on which to authorities lay stress is the action of Chinese in saving a Japanese detachment from a Cossack ambuscade. Such incidents as these can only lead, it is stated, to Kuropatkin's taking determined measures. He cannot have an enemy within as well as outside the lines.

Tokio, May 11.—Admiral Togo reports since the 6th of May many explosions have been heard coming from the vicinity of Port Arthur, but their cause has not been ascertained. The impression here is that Russians are destroying their ships before evacuating the place.

Chefoo, May 11.—An unofficial Japanese dispatch has been received here to the effect Russians have destroyed their fleet in Port Arthur.

REPORTS ENCOUNTER.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—General Karkevitch, under to day's date, telegraphs: "A sotnia of Cossacks the morning of May 7 approached within nine miles of Luan Miao and became engaged in a fusilade with a Japanese company. The latter soon received reinforcements, our sotnia finding itself opposed to a Japanese battalion and half squadron of cavalry. Meanwhile Japanese infantry effected a crossing of the river by turning to the left of the sotnia. Commander Saraleff withdrew his men, but before arriving within six miles of Seizekhode he encountered the enemy's cavalry screen, which retreated under our fire. We sustained no losses in either encounter."

CASUALTY REPORT.

Antung, May 6, via Seoul, Corea, May 11.—The official report of casualties at the battle of the Yalu shows a list of thirty-one Japanese officers killed, twenty-nine wounded, 160 men killed and 669 wounded. Shanghai, May 11.—It is reported from Pekin that the Japanese on Monday occupied Kai Ping, sixteen miles below Tachiehao, and that they expected to occupy New Chwang Friday.

Chefoo, May 12, 1:30 a. m.—Officers of steamers arriving from New Chwang discredit the story of the destruction by the Russians of the fleet at Port Arthur. When the officers passed Port Arthur last night (Wednesday) they saw search lights flashing from ships and forts. There were no signs of the Japanese fleet in the vicinity.

It is further stated communication had not been restored with Port Arthur when the steamers left New Chwang. There had not been a train for a week.

RUSSIANS BUILDING FORTS.

London, May 11.—The Posts Shanghai correspondent says the Russians are building forts at Motien pass and extensive entrenchments outside of Liao Yang. DISASTER IN A COAL MINE

FIVE MEN KILLED AND MANY INJURED

Explosion of Powder in Shaft of Big Muddy Coal and Iron Company at Herrin, Ill., Scene of the Disaster.

Carbondale, Ill., May 11.—In an explosion to day at the shaft of the Big Muddy Coal and Iron company in Herrin five men were killed outright, five seriously injured and twenty others slightly injured.

The dead: John Miller, Dick Reins, Fritz Zelbere, Evan Williams, Thomas Green.

Seriously injured: John Swofford, Frank Lazonia, Angelo Scatronia.

The disaster was one of the most serious in the history of the coal industry in this section for many years. Six kegs of powder had been placed in the mine during the time intervening between the night and day shifts for distribution in the morning. John Miller, a driver, had charge of the distribution. Ten minutes after Miller was supposed to have accomplished his task the electric current which runs the machines was turned on and the explosion followed. It is supposed that through some mistake the current was switched on before Miller had distributed the powder.

On reaching the passageway the rescuers met a frightful sight. The body of Miller was literally torn to pieces. Evan Williams was found a short distance from Miller and four of those whose injuries may prove fatal were found in the same vicinity. The three others killed were farther from the pit and not so badly disfigured. Injured men were found in all parts of the mine.

CROP CONDITIONS

Weather Bureau Bulletin States Recent Rains Have Helped Farmers.

The weekly crop bulletin issued by William G. Burns, section director of the weather bureau at Springfield, for the week ending May 9, is in the main a hopeful and encouraging one. It says that the rapid growth of the past week has brought the condition up to the usual average. In the language of the bulletin:

The week has been the most favorable of the season for farming operations and plant growth. Under the influence of bright sunshine and warmth the first part, followed by warm rains the latter part of the week, vegetation made rapid growth and planted seeds have germinated under the most favorable conditions. It is estimated that the rapid advance of the season in the last week has brought it up to the average stage.

Much ground has been prepared for corn and some planting done. Plowing has progressed favorably, the soil being mellow and breaking well. Under favorable weather conditions a large acreage will be planted during the ensuing week.

The outlook for oats is uniformly encouraging. The crop is practically all in the ground and in many localities the plant is showing.

While wheat in some places is not doing well, the average condition has greatly improved during the week, a majority of fields ranging from fair to excellent. Rye is in a thrifty stage.

Meadows and pastures have improved. Gardens are mostly planted and although backward are now doing well. Early planted potatoes are up.

Fruit, except peaches, is very promising. The trees are in full bloom and a heavy yield is indicated.

Conditions in the central district of Illinois are reported as follows:

Adams—Ground working heavily, but little plowing done and but little corn planted; rain night of 6th; fruit trees nearly all in full bloom; a few early potatoes planted; some preparations made for corn planting, but land will be too wet to work for several days.

Edgar—Weather warm; work advancing rapidly; oats and grass well started; corn planting commenced; clover looking well; stock on pasture and in good condition; fruit trees full of bloom.

Effingham—Weather favorable; some corn planted and potato planting finished; fruit, except peaches, promises well.

Fayette—Fine growing weather with beneficial showers; meadows and pastures doing well; wheat improving, but prospect is not good, not many oats sown; corn planting in progress.

Hancock—Weather wet; ground too wet for farming; some corn planted; pastures fine; wheat and oats looking well; fruit trees in full bloom except peaches; apples and pears promise a full crop.

Jersey—Wheat in good condition; oats poor; clover and pastures fair; some corn planted, but plowing for other fields is retarded a few days by rain; stock looks well; peaches, plums, pears, apples and strawberries in full bloom.

A WORTHY CAREER.

John Allen, of Evansville, Ind., is in the city, called by the funeral of his brother in law, George Smith. Mr. Allen is a son of Fayette Allen, so well known to many in this city as one of the pioneer colored men of the place. Some years ago the father moved to Peoria and later became badly crippled with rheumatism and two weeks ago passed away. He was the father of two sons and two daughters. One son, James, is dead, and one daughter, wife of Mr. Smith, recently deceased. His other daughter, Mrs. Emmie Reed, of Peoria, came down to attend the funeral of Mr. Smith. The other son, John, graduated from the high school of this city a good many years ago and for some time was bookkeeper in the central market in Peoria. Afterward he went to Evansville, Ind., where he was employed as a teacher and rose to be principal of the colored schools of that city. He has nearly 600 pupils and a large number of teachers under him and is getting along well. The writer well remembers him as a little boy forty years ago, striving to make something of himself, and he has succeeded to a gratifying extent. He is married and has one son in the schools under his charge and has lost one little daughter by death.

CURED HIS MOTHER OF RHEUMATISM.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now, and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by all leading druggists.

C. A. Swan, of Roodhouse, was a caller in the city Wednesday. He is now a resident of Roodhouse, though he lived here when Jacksonville was young. He was one of the first employes on the C. & A. railroad in various capacities, rising to the important post of locomotive engineer. He is as erect as any young man and is wonderfully vigorous for a person of 80 years, proving what good habits and upright conduct will do for a man.

On account of the Republican state convention in Springfield May 12, the Wabash will sell round trip tickets, May 10, 11 and 12, for $1. Tickets good to return on or before May 16.

A member of the Phi Alpha triennial committee recently received a card from a member of the class of '73, now residing in Chicago, saying that after an absence of thirty-one years he had concluded to attend the Illinois college commencement exercises this year, and see if the old hill is still there. Such letters as this show the lasting interest former students of the old college maintain in their alma mater.

TWO KINDS OF CHILDREN

Children that grow too fast and those that seem hardly to grow at all, both need Scott's Emulsion.

It gives that rich vital nourishment which is the secret of all healthy growth. It rounds out the long limbs, and helps children to grow without using up all their strength in growing.

Mothers ought to know more about the wonderful help which Scott's Emulsion would give their children.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recomended to try a bottle of Teas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

Quality=Cheapness

When a customer has once been educated to quality, he will seldom seek a store that appeals merely to the desire to save pennies.

There are communities where quality arguments would have no weight, but many more could be educated toward quality if the right arguments were used.

Quality arguments are sometimes slow trade builders, but they build exceeding strong—bargain goods are only a bargain to those who cannot afford the best, but there is generally a hole in the bargain.

If you want simply butter, pay the commission man or jobber's price and get it. If you want absolute purity and perfect flavor, the kind that brings customers back for more, pay more and get more. Quality has been behind every business that has built up a solid reputation.

IN POLITICS.

James H. Jumper, who has lived in Chicago a while, though formerly a resident of this city has developed into quite a politician. During the recent contest at the primaries in the great city he espoused the cause of Deneen and it was at his residence, No. 70 Ayers avenue, that the Fifth District club met to organize. He did gallant work and his district went for Deneen by a good majority. He says in a letter to his old time friend, Thomas Rapp, that he expects to go to Springfield with a delegation of forty men and women and he kindly adds that if their candidate fails to secure the nomination he is for Yates.

FELL TWENTY FEET.

Newsome Clark, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, residing on South Main street, had a narrow escape from a severe injury Wednesday evening. He was playing on the back porch of the second story and in some manner fell over the railing to the ground below, a distance of twenty feet. He fell headforemost into a pile of rubbish in which there was considerable old glass, but singularly he received no serious injury, a sprained wrist and a small cut on the face being the extent of damage done.

TAKING DESPERATE CHANCES

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by all leading druggists.

CLASS REUNION.

R. M. Hockenhull is laboring with commendable zeal to secure a reunion of his class, which graduated from Illinois college in 1879. The only one not living is Dr. T. P. Antle. The remaining members are: C. F. Curtiss, of Modesto; T. F. Dennis, of the pension office, Washington, D. C.; F. M. Downing, Aspen, Colo.; J. F. Downing, Kansas City, Mo.; H. A. Moulton, Fort Smith, Ark.; Charles Nusbaum, Petersburg; C. S. Rannells, C. S. Sanders, R. M. Hockenhull, of this county; W. P. Rice, of Ainsworth, Iowa, and J. K. Sanders, of London, Eng. Such affairs are delightful to the participants and cannot fail to be of great advantage to the college in keeping the alumni in touch with the institution. FREIGHT AGENTS.

The annual meeting of the American Association of Local Freight Agents' association will be held at Peoria May 11 to 17. It is expected that at least 500 delegates will be present at the convention.

The three days of the convention will be taken up principally with the discussion of many subjects of value to freight agents. The topics have been assigned to different cities and delegates from these places will discuss the objects in the manner that best suits them. It is likely that the Peoria local will arrange a trip either to St. Louis or to the Mississippi river. Three years ago when the association met at Denver the agents of that city arranged a long trip through the mountains and to Salt Lake City. J. B. Hudson is president of the local association and Jerome R. Chisam is secretary.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of circuit clerk of Morgan county, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention.

C. L. HAYDEN.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for coroner, subject to the decision of the Morgan county Republican convention. F. M. FERGUSON.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for coroner, subject to the decision of the Morgan county Republican convention. OLIVER MASON.

The laboring men are for Governor Yates. He is the governor who brought about the abolition of convict labor. The laboring men and their influence will be one of the most important factors in the campaign of 1904.

In all the abuse about Governor Yates and all the various boards appointed by him, his traducers have not been able to specify one instance of wrong doing. They have made all sorts of charges but never have been able to give one particular instance.

John P. Altgeld, with all his boasted love for the laboring man, did not abolish the competition of convict labor with free labor. Governor Yates took hold of the measure, and put in force an amendment to the constitution which was adopted twenty years ago, but has been ignored by all his predecessors.

The Republican convention for the Twenty-third district, speaking of Governor Yates' administration, said: "His administration will bear the searchlight; it is clear and honorable. We like him because he dares to do the right; we like him as a man and we admire his grit and courage. We like his administration and are for his renomination and election."

Three-quarters of a million dollars was saved to the taxpayers by one single veto of Governor Yates. There are fifty-one circuit judges in the state outside of Cook county; fourteen circuit judges and thirteen superior judges in Cook county. A bill passed the last legislature raising the salaries of all these men $1,500 per year—a total of $117,000 per year or over $700,000 for six years. Is not a man who looks after the interests of the taxpayers a good man to tie to?

Governor Yates did not have to promise a favor in a primary election law. As governor of the state he had recommended it in his message to the last legislature. The results show that had there been such a law in force he would have received a large majority of the votes in the state convention on the first ballot. Wherever there was an honest primary, and Governor Yates made a fight, he won.

Freeport Journal: The day has gone by when the voters of this country pay any attention to the vile abuse heaped upon political candidates. Richard Yates stands higher today in the estimation of the plain people of Illinois on account of the vile abuse of him by the Chicago newspapers.

AFTER THE CONVENTION.

Galesburg Republican-Register: In a few days the Republican contest for the gubernatorial nomination will be over and peace once more prevail in the party ranks. Then it will be discovered by the men that have been foremost in criticising the state administration that it was not so bad after all. Instead of blackguarding, these men will be found among the defenders of the administration. They have no further personal ends to serve by abusing the governor. Still the character of the administration has not changed. If its quality is found to be good after the convention it was equally good before.

YATES VINDICATED.

Effingham Republican: The prospect for Governor Yates' renomination is better now, on the eve of the state convention, than at any time during the campaign. Governor Yates has made a most remarkable campaign due largely to his popularity with the people and a desire of the rank and file of the party to manifest their party loyalty when attacked by the trust press and those who would aid the enemy. Whatever the outcome of the state convention may be, Governor Yates can feel that he has been vindicated in his administration by the loyalty shown by the masses.

PRESS COMMENTS

Chicago Inter Ocean: Complete control of the Republican state convention is now in the hands of the organization which dominated the convention in 1902. If the convention be lost to the organization in final contest the fault will be with the leaders.

Yates, Lowden and Warner will have together about 900 of the 1,499 votes on the first ballot. Where will these votes finally land? is the question the politicians here are asking tonight. Will enough of the Lowden forces go to Yates to renominate the governor? Will enough of the Yates votes go to Lowden to nominate him? Or will both unite on Warner?

Governor Yates undoubtedly has the best of the situation as the matter seems to stand now. Of the 900 votes which what is called the organization will have, the governor will have 525 to 550. He will need fewer from Lowden to nominate him than Lowden would need from him. He has another advantage in that his delegates owe no subsidiary allegiance to any other order. They were elected under fire and they are for Yates because they want to be for him.

Chicago Tribune: The instructed delegates will be an important factor in the governorship contest. There are a lot of country statesmen who care but little who is elected provided they can discern the bandwagon from a distance and climb upon it at the proper time. They want to be in a position to say to the nominee: "Well 'Dick,' or Frank, or 'Pash,' or Charley, or Howland, or whatever the name may be, we were with you all right," and then after the election claim a good share of the jobs.

They are like the Democratic county convention in 1896, when the committee on resolutions, except one man, "ducked" the job so as not to be committed to either the gold or the silver proposition. The lone diplomat reported this platform:

"Resolved, That we don't care what happens, so long as it doesn't happen to us."

Chicago Record-Herald: Senator Cullom says he is taking no part in the governorship contest and that he wants party harmony. It is believed that what the senator wants is a governorship candidate who will agree to support him for reelection as senator in 1907. There has been a lot of gossip that such an understanding exists between Senator Cullom and Mr. Lowden.

It is said that Senator Cullom considers Hamlin and Deneen as dangerously ambitious. He does not like Yates, but there is being told a story that some of Cullom's friends have said that the senator will support the governor provided the latter shows more than 500 votes on the first ballot, and provided further that the governor would agree to support the senator for reelection in 1907.

Elgin Courier: The result of the Cook county primaries failed to clarify the gubernatorial situation. Neither Lowden nor Deneen met with signal defeat or victory. The latter received the larger vote but that was generally expected. He is still a possible but not a probable winner. The same is true of Lowden who with his country delegates, will go into the state convention with about the same number of delegates as his Chicago opponent.

The Cook county situation is encouraging to the candidates from down the state, each of whom is looking for a slice of the Chicago vote, when the general breakup comes, as it is almost sure to do.

Meanwhile Kane county and the other uninstructed counties are in a position to wield a great influence in the convention.

Havana Republican: The Republican state convention meets in Springfield next Thursday to name the winning state ticket at the coming fall election. Governor Yates, who is a candidate for renomination, has made the best showing in his canvass throughout the state. He has been the target of the Chicago trust press from the time of his inauguration, but in the face of all this he has received the endorsement of counties that were thought solid for his opponents. Trickery and chicanery have been indulged in by the anti-Yates forces to no avail and all that they can now do is simply to hold on to the end gate of the Yates band wagon. Whoever is the nominee at the state convention is the nominee of the Republican party and every Republican, be he Yates or anti, should support and labor for the success of the nominee at the polls in November.

Galesburg Plaindealer: We have received a copy of the rules for the government of the Republican party of Illinois, to be presented to and acted upon by the state convention next week. We have given it a careful perusal and study, and give it our cordial approval, believing it will be met with the cordial approval of a great majority of the party and will conduce to harmony and fair and just action at the primaries and conventions, giving every man who may aspire to serve the people in a public capacity an even chance for a place on the ticket.

CITY IS RESTRAINED

Perpetual Injunction Granted in the Signalphone System Case.

Judge Thompson has rendered a decision in the injunction suit recently filed by C. C. Carter through his attorney, W. A. Crawley, against the city of Jacksonville, asking that the city be restrained from allowing the installation of the Signalphone system for police and fire departments. A motion made to dissolve the injunction was overruled and the cause was heard, and bill and answer, and an order making the injunction perpetual was granted.

Following is the decree of the court, in part:

"The court, having heard the motion of said defendant to dissolve the injunction heretofore herein granted, and having heard the arguments of counsel and being fully advised in the premises, overrule said motion, to which ruling and decision of the court the defendant, by its counsel, then and there excepted, and thereupon said cause came on to be finally heard upon the complainant's said bill and the exhibits thereto, and the defendant's answer and the exhibits thereto, and the evidence offered by the respective parties; and the court, having heard the arguments of counsel and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the equities of said cause are with the complainant and that he is entitled to the relief prayed for in said bill.

"It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the injunction heretofore herein granted be made perpetual as to the execution or performance of the contract with the Signalphone company, of Milwaukee, Wis., for the purchase of their system of fire and police alarm, under the resolution adopted by said defendant, the city of Jacksonville, of the date of April 7, 1904."

The constitutional amendment abolishing convict labor was adopted in 1886. No governor would use his influence to have a law passed carrying the provision into force until Governor Yates was elected.

Chubbledy Boy.

Chubbledy Boy is exceedingly young,
But he is a wonderful scholar as well,
For there's never a word in the English tongue
Can puzzle Chubbledy Boy to spell.

His method a pedagogue might annoy,
For Chubbledy has an original plan,
And it's "B-R-X-Q-W-Boy,"
And it's "B-R-X-Q-W-Man."

Of course no teacher could ever allow
Such very ridiculous spelling as that,
For it's "B-R-X-Q-W-Cow,"
And it's "B-R-X-Q-W-Cat."

But there's one by whom it is understood,
And there's one who praises her Chubbledy Lad,
With his "B-R-X-Q-W-Good,"
And his "B-R-X-Q-W-Bad."

And there's one whose bosom is wont to beat
Over little Chubbledy's prattling art,
And his "B-R-X-Q-W-Sweet,"
And his "B-R-X-Q-W-Heart."

BIG CROWDS FOR CONVENTION

SPRINGFIELD THRONGED WITH POLITICIANS

Yates Evidently Far in the Lead Arouses Great Enthusiam.

The largest, most uncertain and most anxious crowd that ever gathered for a state convention, gathrred in Springfield last night,

While the situation is decidedly mixed and so far as is known, no actual trade or combination has been entered into, it is agreed by all that the position of Governor Yates is the most satisfactory of any of the candidates. His forces present a solid and unbroken front and their enthusiasm knows no bounds.

During the day congressional caucuses were held, at which Governor Yates was present and addressed the Yates delegates from each district, meeting and talking with them personally. This stupendous undertaking was arranged weeks ago and was carried out according to schedule without a hitch or break yesterday.

Last evening at the Yates headquarters, across from the Leland, a general caucus was held, at which Lieutenant Governor Northcott presided. Speeches were made by Lieutenant Governor Northcott, Governor Yates, Hanby Jones, John J. Brown and others. After the caucus the delegates and supporters, headed by Jeffries' band, marched through the corridor of the hotel cheering Yates to the echo. It was by far the biggest demonstration any candidate received during the day.

While many caucuses have been held by the party leaders and leaders of the respective candidates, no one seems able to make a sure prediction as to the alignment of the forces at to day's convention. There are rumors that both the Lowden and Deneen forces will go to the support of Governor Yates after a roll call or two. The rivalry between these two candidates is most keen and both are determined, either to be the nominee or the means of naming him.

The Warner forces still express the hope that their candidate will be found the most available one. The Hamlin stock has not changed one way or the other, although extravagant claims are being made by the supporters of the attorney general. Senator Cullom still maintains a discreet silence, so far as the public is concerned, and where the support of the Cullom men will be thrown is the enigma that is puzzling all the candidates.

The convention will be called to order at 12 o'clock to day and Speaker Cannon will preside at both the temporary and permanent organizations. John M. Harlan will be the floor leader of the Deneen forces and Judge Haney of the Lowden. The other floor leaders are not yet known.

The headquarters of the various candidates were brilliantly illuminated and the supporters of the respective aspirants were vociferous in their enthusiasm. Besides the Jeffries' band from this city, Warner, Hamlin and Len Small each had a band to help his boom along. At the headquarters of Senator Small, of Kankakee, apples were handed out to visitors during the day and evening.

The ladies had a good share in the noise and excitement of the day and were among the most enthusiastic partisans of their candidates.

Taken as a whole, the crowd now assembled probably surpasses in every respect and previously called together to a state convention in this state.

AT THE GRAND.

"My Friend from Arkansaw," a comedy drama in four acts, by Robert Sherman, was staged at the Grand last evening at popular prices, before a good house.

The play is of the noisy sort, but in the main appeared to give good satisfaction. Robert Sherman, as Tom Howe, was good, as were also George Cole, as the villain, Edgar Weldon; B. Martin, as Oscar, and William Thomas, as Sam Tobin. Edythe Hamilton, as Nellie Coon, a country school teacher, was a favorite with the audience. The comedy element was furnished by Alice Lundy as Nancy Tobin, Fred Hubbard as Steve Coon and Lewis Ward as Dr. Evercure.

The various scenes were frequently applauded, the audience being very appreciative.

The next attraction will be the Dodge & Bowman Amusement company, Friday and Saturday.

AN OPEN LETTER.

From the Chapin, S. C., News: Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician, who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effect. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, editor. This remedy is for sale by all leading druggists.

CONDENSED STORIES.

He Thought the Bishop Could Shoot Better Than He Could Preach.

The late Bishop Dudley of Kentucky was on a hunting expedition near Louisville at one time during the last few years of his life and happened to fall in with a local Nimrod whose unconcealed admiration of the city man's marksmanship paved the way for further conversation.

"What's your name?" the countryman finally inquired.

"Dudley," was the reply.

After some exchange of incident and experience the bishop's interlocutor hazarded, "Say, Dudley, what business do you follow?"

"I'm a preacher."

"Oh, get out! What are you giving me?"

"But I am. I preach every Sunday in Louisville."

"Well, well, I never would 'a' thought it! You ain't stuck up a bit like most of the preachers down this way."

An invitation to hear this new made acquaintance preach was accompanied by a scribbled card, and the next Sabbath saw the rustic; in his "Sunday best," ushered into the bishop's own pew, where he listened intently to both service and sermon.

He was manifestly amazed afterward to have the orator of the morning come down to greet him as cordially and familiarly as in the woods.

He managed to stammer his thanks and added: "I ain't much of a judge of this kind of thing, parson, but I riz with you and sot with you and saw the thing through the best I knew how. But all the same, if my opinion's wuth anything to you, the Lord meant you for a shooter!"

Roosevelt Was Discourteous.

In his book on President Roosevelt Francis E. Leupp writes: "I remember once hearing Mr. Roosevelt, as civil service commissioner, discredit a certain cabinet member's truthfulness to his face. Another person who was present, a mild mannered man with an ingenuous soul, seemed deeply pained by the scene while it lasted and afterward said to me: 'It was very discourteous treatment for Commissioner Roosevelt to visit upon an officer of so much higher rank. Why, he actually accused him of lying.' And then, after a moment's pause, but with no indication of seeing anything funny in the remark, he added, 'And what was worse, my dear sir, he went on and proved it.'"

Depew Hadn't Heard It.

Like Lord Bacon, who some say would not own up to writing the plays of Shakespeare because it would ruin his reputation as a philosopher to be known as a poet, Senator Spooner has already studiously avoided gaining a reputation as a wit because he would rather be known as a lawyer.

The other day he was clandestinely telling a good story to a few friends in the senate when one of them remarked: "That's a corker. That's one of Depew's."

"Not yet," snapped the Wisconsin senator grimly as he turned and went to his seat.—Washington Post.

"Allays Want Cash."

Mrs. Emma Moffett Tyng, lecturer on domestic science, tells the following story to illustrate the insistence of kitchen interests in the house.

"I met an old darky near my southern home," said she.

"He was a bundle of rags, as he always was, and everybody knew that his cabin looked as disreputable as himself. He was carrying a fine flitch of bacon over his shoulder.

"HE ALLAYS WANT CASH."

"'Uncle Cæsar,' said I, 'why don't you save a little on your food and buy you some better clothes and fix up your house a little?'

"'Well, I'll tell you de truf, Miss Emma,' said he. 'My Jack-an' my house done give me credit, but Mistah Stomach, he allays want cash.'"

A "LOVERS' LEAP" BRIDGE.

Trysting Place in Iowa, Where They Pledged Their Troth, to Be Rebuilt.

A "lovers' leap" is considered a good thing in Columbus Junction, Ia., where lovers wore the old affair out, and a new one is being built to take its place. The "leap" in this instance is a bridge and as such is one of the oldest contrivances that have ever been built in the Hawkeye State, says the Chicago Tribune. The towns of Columbus Junction and Columbus City are built on towering hills that overlook the valleys of the Iowa and Cedar rivers, these two streams forming a junction near the two towns. Columbus City is the older town and is located farther back on the hills.

When the Rock Island railway people built their two lines there were too many hills to get anywhere near the old town, so a new town was started at the junction and called Junction City. The two places are separated by a number of deep ravines, and it was found necessary for the people to bridge one of them in order to get back and forth. It is claimed that most of the population of the old town was composed of pretty girls, while there was an army of young men in the new town. This occasioned a great deal of traveling back and forth, and the boys had to go around several miles or make a short cut down through the ravine.

When the young men got old enough to vote they voted a bridge across the ravine. It was a picturesque affair, and the new one will be as near like it as two peas resemble each other. There are two great steel cables stretched across from bank to bank, and from these cables a narrow platform is suspended.

After the first bridge was built the young people of both towns utilized it. The bridge was the objective point for a walk, and it is claimed that Cupid was the bridge tender. It is asserted that half of the matches of the two towns have been made there, and the boys boast that they "popped the question" in midair.

No one about the place can tell how it came to be known as "lovers' leap," for certain it is that no couple has ever been known to start to cross or leave it save at a slow walk. No one ever has had occasion or thought to pitch off the place where happy unions were planned, and there is no other than this same prospect for the new bridge. But the old name will be retained, there being a superstitious fear of changing the luck by bestowing a more appropriate one.

Wild Geese Lost In Kentucky Town.

A very large flock of wild geese were lost in Bowling Green, Ky., at about 9:30 o'clock the other night, and for awhile their cries could be heard all over the town, says the Bowling Green News. It is said that the geese were migrating back to the north, which is a sure sign that winter is over. When Bowling Green was reached they became dazzled by the electric lights and completely lost their way. In the original flock there were perhaps several hundred geese, but they were separated and left in several smaller flocks. One gentleman who saw the geese before they were separated described the scene as one not unlike an approaching storm, the sky being black with the dense flock. Several shots were taken at the geese in various parts of the city, but as far as can be learned none was killed.

Siberian Railway Features.

In 1901 the great Siberian railway was thrown open to the public. There was then in operation a total of 1,111 miles in Manchuria and 4,000 miles in Siberia, a continuous Russian line from Moscow to Port Arthur of 5,129 miles, and the new trains de luxe, which will begin running this summer, will give virtually a through service from Paris to Port Arthur, a distance of 7,299 miles, 6,090 miles of which is over Russian lines.

The "Panouma" Stone.

A new stone recently made its appearance in London and has been seized upon by lovers of agate, jade and other forms of stone adaptable for decorative purposes. The name given to it is "panouma," and it comes from New Zealand. It has an opaque, rich, green tone, somewhat of the color of jade, but not so dense and is capable of a higher polish. It might almost be mistaken for moss agate.

A Korean View of the War.

Burton Holmes says that while he was in Seoul, the capital of Korea, recently he asked an intelligent Korean what side his nation would take in a dispute between Japan and Russia.

"You have seen two dogs fight over a bone?" asked the Korean.

Mr. Holmes assented.

"Well," continued the Korean, "did you ever see the bone do any fighting?" —New York Times.

MATHENY & LLOYD.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, May 11.—Wheat—The opening wa barely steady, July a shade higher to ⅛c lower at 85⅝@86⅛c. Early in the session offerings were light, due to firm cables and small receipts. Under a fair demand from pit traders a firmer tone developed, July advancing to 86¼@86⅜c. Later there was a disposition to sell and prices began to decline. A Kansas City dispatch claimed that taking into consideration the present outlook in that section the government report was altogether too pessimistic. A report from Montreal stated the yield in the Canadian northwest would be 80,000,000 bushels—the largest in the history of the country. These advices caused the pit crowd to hammer the market and quick declines followed. A lot of long wheat came out. Before selling was checked July declined to 84⅞@85c. As the session drew near a close shorts were fair purchasers and part of the loss was regained. July finished ⅛@⅛c lower, May off ¼c. Liverpool unchanged to ⅛d lower. At the seaboard five boat loads were taken.

Corn—Considering weakness of wheat the corn market exhibited decided strength. Shorts were active buyers throughout the day, firm cables and sudden falling off in receipts being chief incentives. Strength was more remarkable in view of favorable weather conditions and bearish tone of crop news. The market closed at the highest point of the day. Compared with yesterday's closing quotations July is ⅜@½c and May ⅜c higher. Liverpool advanced ⅛d. On the coast three boat loads were accepted.

Oats—A feature was the urgent demand for May from prominent commission houses. Offerings were scarce and the price had to be bid up 1c before the demand was satisfied. There was also considerable covering by shorts. More distant months were affected by strength of May, but advance was not so great. Improved shipping demand and small receipts were the bull factors. The close was ⅜@¾c better.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, May 11.—There were periods of to day's trading that were considerably more active than recent average, but in intervals the market showed the same profound condition of lethargy that has characterized it for some time. News of developments were not lacking, but response to them was very slight. A conspicuous feature of the day's stock market was selling of United States Steel stocks which carried common stock to 9¼, a level never before touched. Selling was attributed to reports from the trade, which were of a declining demand for iron and expanding facilities for output by the United States Steel corporation's iron department, with resulting discontent by independent producers. The most notable developments of the day was enormous gold movement. Closing quotations:

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA READ THIS.

The old way of taking pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia is all wrong. They may be put up in tablets or in liquid, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervous troubles and sick headache, it does not cure, stop taking the drugs and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache, by cleansing the stomach and bowels, at the same time using a medicine that will act upon the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspedsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. Druggists sell these pills at 25 cents, per box. It only takes one pill for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Allcott.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

He Backed Out.

"I don't seek your confidence enough, Matilda," said Mr. Mudley, who was experiencing one of his periodical spasms of reform. "Hereafter I want you to consult me about all your little troubles and affairs. I wish to take an interest in everything that interests you. Come to me with your doubts. Confide in me."

"Oh, Henry, how sweet of you!" exclaimed Mrs. Mudley. "I have always wished that we were nearer together, that I could consult you and lean upon you, as it were."

"Well, hereafter always come to me," benignly enjoined Mr. Mudley as he opened the evening paper.

A few moments later Mrs. Mudley ventured, "Henry, dear."

"Yes, my love."

"May I ask your opinion about something?"

"Why, certainly, my dear," said Mr. Mudley, sitting up straight and assuming a judicial cast of countenance. "What is it, my love?"

"Would you make this waist of maize peau de cygne, with the bertha of point d'esprit, trimmed with ruches of taffeta, or would you have the yoke cut gules on the bias, with cuffs of cream venetian over white mousseline?"

"I believe I'd have it the first way, Matilda," gasped Mr. Mudley as he looked about for his hat. "Guess I'll go down to the club for awhile."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

"Oh, these doctors are so ridiculous," replied the second seal, glancing over an old newspaper he had found on the ice. "Here's one in an interview in this paper who says it's 'foolhardy to go into the water after a hearty meal.' How else does he suppose we'd get it?"—Philadelphia Press.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

How a Boy Full of Business Succeeded With Poultry.

It is a good thing for boys who contemplate entering a business career to early have some practical experience as business men. There is a boy in my neighborhood who raises thoroughbred Plymouth Rock and Wyandotte chickens and makes it pay.

He started out on a small scale by purchasing a dozen eggs from a poultryman who kept simply full blooded Plymouth Rocks. Then he purchased a dozen eggs from a man who raised thoroughbred Wyandottes. He paid $1 per dozen for his eggs.

He set his eggs under two common hens, which a friend of his sold at a low price because the hens wanted to do nothing but "set." In time he found that he had a brood of twenty chickens, six roosters and fourteen pullets. The next spring he separated his two breeds of fowls and carefully labeled with date and kind each egg laid by his hens. He then advertised upon his front gate, "Sittings for sale, $1 per dozen—thoroughbred Plymouth Rocks and Wyandottes."

He kept careful account of all expenditures and found out at the end of the first year he had just about cleared himself of all debt incurred. The next year, with increased stock, he made money.—Farm Journal.

The Disobedient Duckling.

"Children, do not run far away," said Mamma Duck to her four little ducklings one day as she sat down in a place for a nap.

But she had no sooner closed her eyes when Dick Duckling said to his three brothers:

"Let us take a stroll in the meadow."

"No," they replied. "Mamma told us we would get into trouble if we wandered away."

"Oh, she's too careful!" declared Dickey. "Come on; let's have some fun. There's no harm."

And so he finally persuaded them to go with him, and they wandered through the grass a long way from where their mother was asleep.

HE GRABBED POOR DICKEY.

They were having a real good time, too, when suddenly a large, hungry fox sprang from the bushes. He grabbed poor Dickey and ran off as hard as he could to his home, where he made a good meal off the disobedient duckling.

Can you guess what the moral of this little story is?—Farm and Ranch.

Midget Shetland Ponies.

An Italian nobleman owns the smallest Shetland ponies in the world. These midget ponies are rarely less than two feet eight inches in height and often very much larger, but the animals owned by the Marquis of Currano are exactly two feet high. The marquis believes in little horses, for, he says, they do more work in proportion to their size and cost less to keep than big horses. His ponies cost only 12 cents a day to feed.

In Milan, a famous city of Italy, he drives his midget four-in-hand and attracts a great deal of attention from passersby.

The Fairy of Spring.

I wish that I knew—
Oh, I do, so I do—
The wonderful, beautiful fairy of spring
Who sets all the country to blossoming.
I wish she would tell
Whether whistle or bell
She uses to make that mysterious sound,
Causing crocus and tulip to peep above ground,
And I wish she would say
Just exactly the way

That she weaves the green carpet, almost in a day,
To spread in the sunshine where children may play.
Is it with her wand tip
Or the breath of her lip
That she makes the brown trees just a bower of bloom
And wakes all the bird songs and banishes gloom?

WOMAN AND FASHION

Lady Curzon Introduced It.

It was Lady Curzon who introduced the hat flounce. She will wear it at Newport this summer. This beautiful hat is in the magpie colors, black and white. The top is trimmed with little white flowers, and there are loops of lace on the middle of the crown. Bunches of white flowers are set underneath the brim. The feature of this hat is the lace flounce, which is sewed around the back part of the hat. This flounce, which is just deep enough to cover the neck, is lightly worked in spots with white silk. The way to shirr such a flounce is to gather it upon a shirr string. The whole is then fastened to the back of the hat in such a manner as to form a veil around its three sides. The technical name is the hat flounce. This same idea is carried out in white lace upon a white hat. And it is seen in tan lace upon a hat of burned straw. All the different dyed laces are used upon hats of the same color.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Lingerie Hats.

The fashionable maid will have one or two of those fascinating lingerie hats in her summer trousseau, and the batiste, mull, fine swiss embroideries and valenciennes lace creations are lovelier than ever this season, as innumerable changes are rung upon combinations of lace and flowers. Nets, plain or dotted, with large chenille wafers, are shirred and plaited into airy rimmed shapes and trimmed with flowers and soft silken scarfs. Quaint effects are obtained by using embroidered and painted mousseline over broad trimmed, low crowned shapes covered with plain taffeta. One model in palest lilac taffeta has its brim lined with tiny frills of valenciennes. The outside of the hat is entirely covered in white mousseline over broad trimmed, low crowned shapes covered with plain taffeta. One model in palest lilac taffeta has its brim lined with tiny frills of valenciennes. The outside of the hat is entirely covered in white mousseline, painted in floral designs and inset with lace, and a broad scarf of lilac taffeta folds round the crown and falls in loops and ends under the brim at the back.

Skirts of the Season.

The European modistes tell us that there is no shadow of doubt about the advent of full skirts for the coming season. There may be variations in detail, in trimming, in length, but the summer skirt will be full, and the sheer materials, the soft supple summer silks and wools, will lend themselves charmingly to the mode. For the walking skirt and the skirt which, for want of a better term, one must call dressy the summer laws are approximately fixed. The morning street costumes will not break into billowing folds, but will keep a tailored severity and, whether plaited or plain, will fit snugly around the hips and ripple discreetly at the ankles.

Combinations of Purple.

Royal purple is one of the most appropriate shades for combined day and evening wear. It is not a color that can be worn by all, but with those who can wear it it is worthy of consideration. A glorious mixture is composed of purple and a peculiar shade of bright pink. Strange as it may sound, this is really a becoming combination when softened by lace and can be worn by many who cannot wear purple alone.

Ready For a Husband.

Mrs. Bacon—I see a Texas woman who had not spoken a word for several years found her voice the other night when a burglar entered her room and has been able to talk ever since.

Mr. Bacon—Now she'll want to get married, I suppose.—Yonkers Statesman.

Guessing Contest.

"It's an automobile story."

"Then you will have no solitary horseman in the first chapter?"

INSPECTED THE ROAD.

A Burlington inspection car arrived over the Jacksonville & Concord road Wednesday morning bound for Centralia with some of the officials and employes of the road.

The car was of the type designed for inspection purposes only, and has the appearance of being a coach built about the engine.

Those on board were L. W. Berry, superintendent; Taylor L. Smith, master mechanic; W. S. Glover, chief train despatcher; W. A. Card, train master: E. Johnson, traveling engineer; C. A. Barnard, traveling auditor, and E. C. Slocum, division engineer. George W. Dye, general freight agent, and B. F. Bond, chief engineer, boarded the car at this city.

NEW MACHINERY.

J. Cohen has just received a large pair of iron shears, weighing without the motor, about 20,000 pounds. The machine is run by a fifteen horsepower motor and will clip four inch iron. Another pair, which will soon be installed, weighs 60,000 pounds without the motor, is run by a fifty horsepower motor and is designed to clip iron up to five inches thick. It will probably be the heaviest piece of machinery in the city.

MAN WITH IRON NERVE.

Alderman Doolin was somewhat surprised upon going out to milk the family cow Wednesday morning to find another gentleman engaged in that task. Upon being asked by Mr. Doolin if he was not aware that he was milking the wrong cow, the milker calmly replied that he was, but that his family needed the milk. The man was unknown to Mr. Doolin, but it is understood that the alderman lost his temper and the stranger kept the milk.

STILL AN UNKNOWN

Remains of Dead Man Found Monday Not Yet Identified.

The coroner's jury summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of the unknown man found on the Chicago & Alton right of way, north of the city, Monday, convened at Anderson's undertaking parlors Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Only two witnesses were examined and no new facts developed.

The first witness was Dr. Carl E. Black, of this city. He testified that upon examination of the body he had found, in addition to several superficial bruises, a fracture of the right leg near the hip. He further testified that none of the injuries were of such a nature as to cause death.

E. C. Carpenter, conductor of the freight train, the crew of which first discovered the body, testified that the body had first been seen lying in the right of way by the engineer, who stopped the train with the caboose opposite where the body lay. He further testified that an examination revealed the fact that the ground and the rock ballast in the vicinity was not torn up, and apparently had not been disturbed. He said that a man falling from the blind baggage would have been thrown farther from the track.

No further witnesses being brought forward, the jury returned a verdict to the effect that the unknown man had come to his death from injuries received while on the Chicago & Alton railroad right of way, and that there was no evidence to indicate the direct cause of his death.

Several persons from the vicinity of Muncie, Ind., viewed the remains Wednesday and stated that the features were unknown to them. If the body is not claimed it will probably be interred this morning.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

The date of the visit of the Jacksonville Ministerial association in Springfield has been postponed from Monday, May 15, to May 22.

DR. HOWE MAY RESIGN.

Word has been received that Rev. D. F. Howe, who left the First M. E. church in Springfield to take the pastorate of the Grace Methodist church in Denver on account of his health, is considering the advisability of resigning the work. Mr. Howe has failed to find that the climate conditions of Colorado help his health and he says that unless a decided change for the better manifests itself he will be compelled to hand in his resignation of the pastorate by August. It is known, however, that there are several large churches, among them some in Chicago and the east, that want his services. In case he resigns he may accept one of the Chicago charges.

It is also known that Rev. Frost Craft, formerly of the First M. E. church of Decatur, but now pastor of the Trinity Methodist church of Denver, is considering the advisability of resigning. He has been offered a number of places in the east.

CRICKET GUIDE.

The first issue of what is intended to be a year book of cricket in America, known as Spalding Official Cricket Guide, has made its appearance in the Spalding Athletic Library series. The editor is Mr. Jerome, Flannery, formerly publisher of Flannery's Cricket Annual.

No expense has been spared to make an interesting book, and it compares in size and contents with the other well known publications of the Spalding Athletic Library series. Over 200 pages are devoted to the game, of which seventy-seven are full page half-tones of prominent teams and individual players.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

The board of managers of the Women's Hospital of Chicago have issued invitations for the annual graduating exercises of the training school for nurses of that institution, to be held Tuesday evening, May 31, at the South Congregational church, Chicago. Miss Nina Fernandes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Fernandes, of this city, is a member of the graduating class.

THE DEATH RECORD.

TENDICK.

Word was received here Wednesday of the sudden death of J. A. Tendick at his home in Bloomington. The deceased was years ago a resident of this city, but left here about twenty-eight years ago for Texas, where he resided before his removal to Bloomington, where he has lived for the past eight years. He was about 58 years of age and was born in Ulmin, Germany, coming to America in 1853. He had never married.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. S. Tendick, and Mrs. Peter Kastrup, and one brother, William Tendick, all of this city.

The remains will be brought here and the funeral held at the residence of Mrs. S. Tendick, 502 West College avenue, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PHILLIPS.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phillips died Tuesday night at the family home northeast of the city.

The funeral services were held Wednesday morning.

FUNERALS.

SMITH.

Funeral services over the remains of George Smith were held at the A. M. E. church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The services were in charge of Rev. H. Lackey, and appropriate hymns were sung by the church choir. There were many beautiful floral tributes offered by sympathizing friends of the family.

After the services at the church the remains were taken to Jacksonville cemetery and were there laid to rest. The bearers were W. A. Hubbard, David Spencer, Jacob Stewart, James Mathews, Joe Milaum and Squire Divers.

CONDIT.

The funeral of Bert Demarest Condit was held at the home of his mother, Mrs. George T. Hamilton, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. R. O. Post officiating, assisted by Rev. F. S. Hayden. Many floral offerings were sent by sympathizing friends.

At the close of the services the remains were laid to rest in Diamond Grove cemetery. The bearers were: William Dalton, George Merrill, Robert Tilton, Edwin Caldwell, David Estaque and Marcus Robinson.

VIRES.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Nora Vires were held at Mt. Emory Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of friends, who had met to pay a last tribute of love and respect to the dead. The services were in charge of Rev. Mr. Rogers. There were many beautiful floral tokens, which were in charge of Mrs. Lafayette and Misses Leak, Wilson, Clark and Fry.

After the services were concluded the remains were taken to Jacksonville cemetery for interment. The bearers were: George Lewis, James Corbin, Anthony Fry, Ed Lewis, Theodore Glass and Guy Washington.

IN MEMORY OF NORA VIRES.

Farewell, farewell, a long, a last farewell
To associates, friends and kindred dear;
To all the earth farewell.
With you I've stayed from birth,
To day I leave this earth;
I enter in a fairer glade
Where all is joy and mirth.

There is a day of shining rest
For every cloudy night;
Sorrow may abide an evening guest,
But joy and happiness comes with early light.
God has marked each sorrow and numbered every tear.
Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all we suffer here.

Both friends and foes, we all must go
In God's appointed time.
I cannot say that death is cruel,
For this we all must taste.
A loving Savior cleared the way
That we might follow on,
And in that golden paradise
We'll meet with those that's gone.

Mother and father, dear, I've crossed the wave
Of death's deep rolling tide
To the land beyond the grave
That lies on the other side.
Ere the golden sun had set
I breathed my last faint sigh
And passed from earth away.
In the sight of Beulah land
There wakes another day.
